A. God made it a man's world, and Eve was created to be his helping companion (Gen 2:18-25). B. Therefore, a woman should not be looking for her glory in life, but rather for her husband's.

The Role of the Woman - Let God be True

Why Did God Create Woman? God created woman to be a helper, and God created woman to procreate humans. After being driven from the Garden, the two were given names: Adam and Eve. Adam's name simply means "man," while Eve's name was given because she would be "the mother of all who lived" (Genesis 3:20).

God is not a man. God is not a woman, either. God does not have a body. God is Spirit. (John 4:24) But He has within His great being both the male and the female qualities that make up man and woman. It is these qualities that He put into man and woman to make them the most special part of His creation. "So God created man in his own image, in ...

I AM A WOMAN OF GOD WHAT DOES THIS MEAN TO JESUS?

But God designed a man with a much stronger need for regular sex than a woman and the woman's body is designed to meet this need even apart from just procreation. The Bible speaks of the fact that God has designed man and woman to become "one flesh" and while in marriage this can take on a spiritual as well as a physical meaning, it has at its core the idea of sexual union.
