theory practice of surrender pdf

The concept of surrender, while appearing to contrast sharply with the prior research on locus of control, is in actuality a practice that augments the existing theory and research. Research supports the contention that surrender, in addition to primary and secondary control, can be an effective coping strategy (Duckham, 2007; Pargament & Cole, 1999; Reinert, 1993; 1997).

Surrender is absolutely necessary if you are to have success on the spiritual path. But surrender has to be done with awareness and discrimination. Otherwise it may be just apathy or indifference. Surrendering doesn't mean you don't have to make plans. You do. You must make the best plans you can, and then turn the whole thing over to the Divine.
